ORDER

The matter came up for admission. During the hearing, the Commission took a serious view that the petitioner has issued instructions vide Memo No.3073/77 dated 20.04.2016 without getting any commitment from the State Government regarding compensating the utility for its financial loss due to waiver of the supervision charges and also without obtaining any approval of the Commission. The petitioner is directed to explain its conduct for violating the Law.

The petitioner is hereby further directed not to waive off the supervision charges on the labour for shifting of the Tubewell connection as prayed in the petition.

The matter is heard and the order is reserved.
